SCHEDULE 1

Program Actions; Availability of Loan Proceeds

Section I. Actions under the Program

The actions taken by the Borrower under the Program include the following:

Pillar 1: Strengthening Competitiveness, Efficiency, and Transparency of Markets

1. To strengthen market competition and sustainable procurement, the Borrower has introduced measures aimed at fostering competition in tenders and enhancing green public procurement practices, as evidenced through the Procurement Law.
2. To reduce compliance costs for entrepreneurs and promote market entry, the Borrower has simplified registration requirements for legal entities by requiring that registration information be published only in the Electronic Bulletin, as evidenced through the Law on Elimination of Excessive Regulations in the Private Sector.
3. To enhance transparency and security of financial transactions, and mobilize private financing for green transition, the Borrower has:
 - (i) improved the regulatory framework for the protection of financial consumers as evidenced through the Amended Law on Protection of the Rights of Financial Services Consumers;
 - (ii) operationalized secure data sharing and payment initiation, consistent with the EU Second Payment Services Directive as evidenced through the Governmental Decision on Functional and Technical Requirements for Interfaces of Payment Service Providers Offering Account Management Services; and
 - (iii) established a framework for classifying sustainable activities, as evidenced through the Governmental Decision on the Taxonomy for Sustainable Finance.
4. To support more and better jobs, the Borrower has (i) improved the financing of high-quality preschool education and care services as evidenced through the Governmental Decision introducing Funding Formula for Early Childhood Education, thereby increasing early child education enrollment rate and women's labor force participation; and (ii) enabled the intermediation of formal seasonal and temporary jobs through temporary employment agents, as evidenced by the Amendments to the Labor Code, contributing to the formalization of low-skilled employment.

Pillar 2: Strengthening Resilience and Economic Integration

5. To advance cross-border energy trade and improve renewable energy integration, the Borrower has: (i) aligned national frameworks with EU electricity trading and market coupling rules; and (ii) introduced licensed market activities to facilitate renewable uptake, as evidenced through the Amendments to the Law on Electricity and the Governmental Decision on Electricity Market Rules, and Network Codes.
6. To modernize district heating, reduce emissions, and improve efficiency, the Borrower has strengthened the co-generation and thermal energy regulatory framework, as evidenced through the Amendments to the Law on Thermal Energy and the Promotion of Cogeneration, the Governmental Decision on the Approval of the Regulation on the Development of the Thermal Energy Sector; and the Governmental Decision on the Approval of the Regulation on the Planning, Approval and Implementation of Investments in the Thermal Energy Sector.
7. To introduce climate resilience requirements in transport corridors, the Borrower has approved comprehensive guidelines and technical criteria on transport and transport-related infrastructure across all transport modes, as evidenced through the Governmental Decision on the Guidelines for Developing Moldova's National Transport Network within Trans-European Transport Network (TEN-T).
