Europe Day 2023: PPF Project brings together young people to challenge their knowledge on fundamental EU and financial - economic concepts

The EU-funded Project Preparation Facility (PPF) Technical Assistance team in collaboration with the Ministry of Finance organised a quiz/game on European Union themes and themes related to economic issues of Moldova for youth as part of Europe Day 2023 – European Village in Chisinau held on 13 May 2023.

The aim of the event was to bring together pupils and students from Moldova stimulating them to improve their knowledge on the European Union and on fundamental economic and financial concepts in an interactive way. The quiz/game also aimed at building a team spirit and developing analytical skills.

Five teams (between 3 and 6 members) participated in the quiz/game and everyone received EU branded gifts from the PPF project. Minister of Finance Veronica Sirețeanu opened the event and awarded the gifts. She congratulated all participants and invited them to visit the Ministry of Finance.

Europe Day 2023: Magic Show for Children

At the European Village in Chisinau held on 13 May 2023, the EU-funded Project Preparation Facility (PPF) Technical Assistance team entertained children and their parents with a spectacular magic show “The World of Magic” performed by the well-known illusionist Gary Kozma. EU branded gifts for children and their parents were distributed by the PPF project team.
